

WELCOME TO YOUR UNIQUE MADMONQ CHAMPION JOURNAL.

After 4 years in the industry, we were tired of boring leaflets with tiny writing. So this time we left the status-quo behind and put all the science online at madmonq.gg/champion. Now our leaflet will be of some actual use.

This Champion Journal is a custom tool to start your journey and create (draw, cut, paint, write, w/e) your unique, kick-ass character and share it with us on social media (#madmonqjournal). Or, ignore the whole thing and make a paper airplane (we made sure it's top-quality paper). The choice is yours.

*What position did you play last? Tank, Jungler, Support, Noob, etc...

Each MADMONQ you bought in your career increase your level by 1.

*It can be your level in the game you play most, IRL job title, or how many twitch followers you have. Anything you're actively working to improve.

A GOAL FOR THIS MONTH

*It can be something chill (beat your ATH kill streak) or serious (promotion at work). Or none of the above (score 25 throws of crumpled paper into the office trashcan).

COOL DESIGN AND STUFF... BUT WHAT' STHE POINT?

It's about the journey, not the destination. A true Champion knows this. That's why we turned this boring, normal leaflet into something that can help motivate you to achieve your goals.
